

NAWCC Chapter 21
Meeting Minutes
St. Michael's Church
1400 S University Blvd
January 28, 2019

The meeting was called to order by President Ken Reindel at 7:05 P.M. A quorum was declared followed by welcome and introductions.

President's Report:

Ken began his tenure as president of the Chapter at this meeting with a proposal for creating a mission statement for the Chapter.

The Mission of Chapter 21 of the National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors is to:

- Promote superior education leading to excellence in horology
- Recruit interest in clock and watch history, technology, manufacturing and repair
- Reach out to others sharing the Chapter's passion for horology
- Perform community service restoring and maintaining historical clockworks

The membership expressed appreciation for Ken's leadership and recognition in renewing the mission statement.

Ken continued with a formal kick off presentation listing objectives for the Chapter and next steps moving forward. From time to time the Score Card will be revisited and expanded upon.

Highlights and successes during 2018 were reviewed. Ken also called for volunteers to present the monthly topics. Members were asked to be creative and offer a presentation. All are welcome.

National Update:

Tim Orr announced that the election of officers for national office were taking place now and encouraged members to be sure and vote. Watch for communication from the National office.

Also, the NAWCC is conducting a National Craft Contest. The call for projects is now underway. Past projects have included case restoration, Lego clocks, homemade wooden clocks as well as unique tool exhibits. Members are encouraged to submit projects. More information is available. Contact Tim Orr if interested.

Paul Wegner Librarian:

Paul reviewed the book, English Country Grandfather Clocks, The Brass-dial Longcase by Richard C.R. Barder. Thank you Paul.

Strawberry Days and other Antique Shows:

Dave Fornof reminded members that exhibit space is available for the at the upcoming Strawberry Days expo for $205. The idea is for the chapter to purchase one table for everyone to share. It is a two day antique show event. Another upcoming event is the Colorado Springs NAWCC Chapter's MiniMart on February 16, 615 W. Uintah St, Colorado Springs. Details are on the website.

Evening's Program:

Carlo Borsi shared a travelogue of pictures and highlights of his trip to the Halim Time & Glass Museum in Evanston Illinois. www.HalimMuseum.org.

Show & Tell:

Tim Orr shared antique tools that he acquired in his travels. One was a possible letdown key. The other tool was mysterious and probably letdown key as well.

Jack Wood shared a volume of reference books. Both presentations were informative followed with applause of appreciation.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:30 P.M.
